Re: Registration No. 4768

Dear Mrs. Baker:

I need your help.

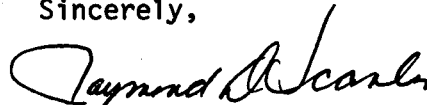

Our agency, on behalf of a client, Sabena Belgian World Airlines, became involved in a promotion with the Belgian Tourist Office. As a result, we found that filings were required by the U.S. Department of Justice. On May 27, 1992 I filed, to the best of my ability, what I thought would be necessary to satisfy the requirements. It seems I did not.

In 1992 we closed our New York office (the office that handled the promotion) and laid off what remained of the staff. The promotion was a one-shot deal with the Belgian Tourist Office, and we are no longer associated with Sabena Belgian World Airlines.

If at all possible, would you be able to help me get out of this mess. If, for some reason, we have to fully comply, I will need an exceptional amount of time to assemble the requested documents and locate the personnel involved.

Thank you in advance for your consideration, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Raymond D. Scanlon
Vice President,
Chief Financial Officer
